BLONDE OR BRUNETTE?

September, 2002 ----At last Cole and Co. answers the age old question of blonde or brunette. Why not both? Holding fast to the preferences of both tones, award-winning furniture for the bath manufacturer Cole and Co. created a bathroom vanity indicative of the quintessential brunette and the atypical blonde.

Cole & Co.'s award winning vanity, the Petite Lily Contemporary is a space saving vanity that offers soft, modern lines. Depending on your taste, you can choose between two completely different finishes that create an ambiance as opposing as night and day.

The deep mahogany finish brings to the bathroom a warm, stylish atmosphere preferred by the brunette lover who disregards the phrase, "blondes have more fun." If cool and light is your preference, then look no further than the exquisite lines of the washed oak finish. The bright nature of this piece is sure to evoke jealousy from its darker counterpart, and vice-versa. But know that both have a personality all of their own.

Whether your taste runs to rich dark tones, or light, soft blonde, Cole and Co. has triumphed in bringing fashion and contemporary style to the bathroom. The Petite Lily Contemporary is available in washed oak and deep mahogany at 28” wide, while its big sister, the Lily Contemporary, comes in both finishes as well as a 40” width. The vanities are available in over 350 authorized decorative kitchen and bath showrooms across the United States.
